Our demonstrator for the May 21st meeting is

Brian Libby

A Ruth Niles inspired Coffee Scoop is the subject of Wednesday's demonstration.

These scoops are turned in two parts, first the scoop part and then the handle. This is a fairly simple turning project and makes a nice useful gift.

The bowl of the scoop is usually end grain orientation just like a hollow form is, but side grain will also work.

This scoop holds 2 tablespoons

Scoops can be any size

President Message

Thanks to all that participated in making the veterans cane adapters, Burt collected the ones from various people to pass on to Herb Blake of the Maine Wood Carvers. I have to admit this was the first time i knocked any out, it wasn't that hard and they do go for a good cause. Soooo, If you have any two by two lengths of wood you don't know what to do with, make some adapters.....

Need a VP? Yes we do, this month we have elections and so far no one has stepped up. I know most if not all of us want to turn wood and not be politicians, but there is really very little of the politics it is a non-issue. The future of this club does depend on someone coming forward - Please consider....

AAW Phoenix 2014? So far I haven't spoken to anyone that plans to venture there to enjoy the June weather and take in the AAW symposium this year. Maybe 2015 in Pittsburg, PA will be more appealing before the show heads south again to Atlanta, GA in 2016

June meeting will feature Don Rawnsley demonstrating a few types of different threading equipment some of which he has made, and techniques that go with it. You've already seen some of his fine work at the show and tell table.

So this month come see Brian Libby demonstrate. He's the man I expect will be taking us through the next couple of years, with your vote this Wednesday.

Safety Note: finally getting comfortable around that new bandsaw ? NOW you really need to keep your mental guard up !
